Kingston; September 2, 2020- The Integrity Commission wishes to advise the public that its main office, which is located on the first floor of the Planning Institute of Jamaica (PIOJ) Building, at 16 Oxford Road, has been temporarily closed, effective Wednesday, September 2, 2020, and will re-open for business on Monday, September 7, 2020.

The closure is to facilitate a deep cleaning and sanitization exercise which is being undertaken by the PIOJ on account of a positive COVID-19 case that the PIOJ has reported.

The closure of the Integrity Commission's Oxford Road Office will not affect the Commission's business operations at its Barbados Avenue location in New Kingston.

The Commission urges all Jamaicans to observe the protocols of the Ministry of Health and Wellness as we each play our part to contain the spread of the COVID-19 Virus.
