Integrity Commission Announces New Appointments

October 22, 2025- Appointments have officially been made for the positions of Executive Director, Director of Corruption Prosecution and Director of Information and Complaints at a swearing-in ceremony, held today at King's House. The following individuals were appointed by the Governor General, His Excellency the Most Hon. Sir Patrick Allen, ON, GCMG, CD, KSt.J:

- Mr. Craig Beresford as Executive Director
- Mr. Roneiph Lawrence as Director of Corruption Prosecution
- Ms. Joeth Jones as Director of Information and Complaints

These appointments are significant steps in strengthening the Commission's leadership team, ensuring continued dedication to its mission of promoting integrity and transparency in public life.

The new appointees bring a wealth of experience and commitment to their roles, which will further enhance the Commission's capacity to effectively address corruption, protect public interest, and uphold accountability.

The Integrity Commission looks forward to working with the new directors to advance its critical work in safeguarding integrity within the public service, and is guided by the fact that integrity is the quiet force that compels us to do what is right - even when it is inconvenient, unpopular or unseen.
