

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Six Investigation Reports and the Indicative Rulings of the Director of Corruption Prosecution were tabled in the House of Representatives

March 11, 2026 – The Integrity Commission wishes to advise the public that six (6) Reports of Investigation, together with their associated Indicative Rulings issued by the Director of Corruption Prosecution, were formally tabled in the House of Representatives on the 10th of March, 2026.

The Reports had been submitted to Parliament by the Commission on an earlier date, in accordance with Section 54 of the Integrity Commission Act, and were subsequently tabled in the House of Representatives consistent with the statutory requirements governing the disclosure of investigation outcomes.

Following the tabling, the Investigation Reports and associated Indicative Rulings have been uploaded to the Integrity Commission's website to facilitate public access. Members of the public may view the documents at <https://integrity.gov.jm/investigation-reports/2026>.
